Balance by Donna Bramlett

It seems that for every good work, there is a tension of opposing forces that must be kept in balance for optimal results. Herein lies the difficulty of true success. A parent wrestles between being too strict and too permissive, sometimes slipping a little more toward one extreme or the other. A business needs to keep expenses down in order to make a profit, but without expenditure there is no business. A Christian can drive people away with legalistic expectations, or smother accountability and growth with unbiblical acceptance of sin. Tension. Stress. Beneficial in doses to keep things moving and in their proper place; harmful in excess.

And here we are at Sharathon. Our community needs Christian radio, and Christian radio needs support. We are trying very hard to keep our appeal balanced, limiting our requests to only twice – preferably only once – a year. We will be as successful as you allow us to be, and we thank you now for seeing the importance of radio ministry and joining with us. Ultimately, our Father provides all we need, whether volunteers or finances. May He use our hands and yours to do it!

We Won't Be Shaken by Bill Powell

As I sit here and type I would love to say, "gone are the days when our society has once again rejected the Christian world-view." I would love to say "Christianity is on the rise in our community and country. The majority are quick to embrace the Bible and once again incorporate it into our schools and laws." The fact is, I can't say that, since it is quite the opposite, but "We Won't Be Shaken."

The Lord could bring about a revival and I think I can safely say we would all embrace that. Unless or until He does, we are left to navigate through this world of crazy and let our lights shine. Think about it. The darker it is, the brighter the light. For those of you who love the Lord, you have been given a greater responsibility. We are the gatekeepers, the torch bearers and the messengers.

What concerns me more than the lack of Christianity is the false Christianity. History has shown that when society loses its way, the church (for the sake of being relevant rather than standing for the truth) compromises for the sake of numbers and money. Jesus is the same yesterday, today and forever. The truth of His word stands the test of time and needs no revision. The truth does not need to be repackaged and tweaked. We don't need to become more like the world. The world needs to become more like Christ.

I am calling on all who have ears to hear to join us in preserving this ministry. The Cornerstone is committed to the essential truths of God's word. We Will Not Be Shaken. We will march on as Christian soldiers. This is a spiritual war, a cultural war. March 18, 19, 20, 21 is our time to suspend regular programming to ask you, the listener, to give of your time, talent and treasure. Help us continue to bring quality Biblical teaching and uplifting music with a message to Volusia, Flagler, St. Johns Counties and now Key West. Let me also say, and around the world on the internet through our web site and phone apps.

How can you help? We need volunteers to man the phones, make deliveries and spread the word. We need as many as can help to call and make a pledge. No gift is too small and no gift is too large. If you feel you have been given the gift of encouragement or leadership, maybe you could make a pledge of over $1,000.00 for matching money. Many are encouraged and blessed when they see their amount can be doubled. If you have other means of giving such as stocks, antiques or collectibles, feel free to give me a call personally at (386) 756-9094.

As always, we are putting a lot into the Sharathon and hope for this to be our best ever. You will find Sharathon to be fun and exciting. We plan to bless you, inspire you and hope to make you laugh. Don't miss out. For all you early birds that have already pledged, thanks for the head start. May God bless you and use you for His glory and honor.

Heb 12:27 (ESV) And this word, Yet once more, signifieth the removing of those things that are shaken, as of things that are made, that those things which cannot be shaken may remain.

Together in the Kingdom by Chris Johnson

Romans 1:16 says, "For I am not ashamed of the Gospel, for it is the power of God for salvation to everyone who believes, to the Jew first and also to the Greek."

This is one of my favorite verses in the Scripture and is often spoken at The Cornerstone studios. We are committed more than ever to proclaiming the good news of Jesus Christ without reservation and without hesitation. The Apostle Paul journeyed throughout the known world, and from place to place he proclaimed Jesus Christ, crucified and risen from the dead. He called on sinners to repent and believe the Gospel no matter the cost and no matter the "measure of success." We have the same calling today, and this ministry exists to be faithful to the call and obedient to Jesus' mandate to go into all the world. The Lord has been merciful to this ministry for over two decades. The countless lives that have been reached and the followers of Jesus who've been encouraged in their walk could never be known this side of eternity. The time, talent and treasure of not only the staff but of you the listener is what makes this endeavor possible. Now is the time we come to ask that you stand with us prayerfully and financially as we seek to continue our ministry efforts in the years ahead. Our theme this year comes from the book of Hebrews where we find that God has established a kingdom that cannot be shaken no matter what rails against it. We as His chosen people are part of that kingdom and are encouraged that no matter what the cultural terrain or the attitude toward the things of God, we will stand because God has declared it to be so. Won't you please consider partnering with us even today? There is a variety of ways to give and in the upcoming Sharathon (March 18-21) you will have the opportunity to stand with us and pledge your support. We are a listener supported ministry and it is our prayer that you see the need and answer the call! Remember, We Won't Be Shaken!

I Didn't Do Anything by Edie Schmidt

Mr. sweet husband had a meeting so Josh and I decided to take baby Erin for a nice, relaxing dinner out. While I carried her to the van, Josh got the diaper bag and locked the house. Erin hates her car seat by the way. As I drove to the restaurant she began to fuss. Josh gave her a blanket, then a drink, then a toy, then fished the toy out from under the seat. He played music, made faces, sang songs and tried to entertain her until we arrived. At the restaurant she sat in my lap and Josh unpacked her food and drink, cut my food and (like the best brother ever) watched to make sure she wasn't choking. Between bites and conversation he reminded me. "Her mouth is too full." "She's got some on her face." "She's got some on your face." "She's eating the coaster!" When she became too interested in the guests in the booth behind me, he decided we should trade sides. So he moved all her stuff and rearranged the table. After we ate he packed her food, toys, cup, blanket and buckled her in the car seat for the ride home. Did I mention she hates the car seat? On the ride home he gave her a blanket, then a drink, then a toy, then fished the toy out from under the seat. He played music, made faces, sang songs and tried to entertain her until we arrived. Back at home he got out of van and said, "Thanks mom! I had a great time." I said "Are you kidding? Thank YOU!" He replied, "For what? I didn't do anything."

THAT is exactly the kind of attitude I see year after year from some of our hardest working volunteers! Some are with us literally for days, heading home only to sleep. Several arrive early while it's still dark and leave late when it's dark again. And while we are struggling to properly convey our gratitude (because how do you express the right amount of gratitude for such devotion?) they seem as though it's no big deal. It's a big deal to us. Whether you can volunteer for a few hours or even longer, it is very much appreciated. If you would like to help us during Sharathon March 18-21 give us a call at (386) 756-9094. It's work but I know you will enjoy the people you meet while working. I'm guessing they are people just like you
