Change by Bill Powell

Probably the most noticeable change happening is that we are moving into fall. Cooler temperatures, leaves changing, fall festivals, football and, yes, the beginning rumbles of Christmas. You may say, what cooler temperatures and leaves changing! So maybe these things aren't as stark of a change as our friends in the north experience but it is so. Just remember those 95 degree temps with a heat index over 100. If you look along the highways in Florida and many trees in our neighborhoods, the leaves change colors and fall. The grass doesn't grow quite as fast and we get to open our windows. Ask my kids what is something I used to drill in their heads and they will tell you, "Be aware of the world around you". Luke 12:37 Blessed are those servants, whom the lord when he cometh shall find watching: verily I say unto you, that he shall gird himself, and make them to sit down to meat, and will come forth and serve them.

Another notable change is we are missing Edie. She was with us for 13 years and she will be missed. She is enjoying the blessing of staying home and raising her daughter. We wish her the best and am sure she will pop in every once in a while. As they say though, the show must go on. Although Edie can't be replaced we are happy to say the Lord has sent us someone. Usually it takes some time to replace someone, especially of the caliber of Edie, but we have hired a person we are sure you are going to appreciate. Next month we will feature her in the newsletter and you will be meeting her soon on the airways.

A few other changes in the programming you should know about. Gene Getz stopped producing his radio program to concentrate on his video Bible. Many do not realize he is in his 80s. Praise the Lord, we were able to replace Gene Getz with Alistar Begg. He has become one of our listeners' favorites.

Another big change was that Mike Kellogg retired and Moody replaced his program with a call-in program. Since most people enjoy waking up to music, we have decided to only carry the call-in program until 4:00 am and music from 4:00-6:00 am. We hope you enjoy the changes.

The most exciting change I would like to tell you about is.....wait for it..... We made our Sharathon goal. Ya HOO WOOPY Praise the Lord. We were short in the spring $60,000 so we had our Make-up-a-thon and were still short until we were blessed by a gift from Providence Church that took us over the top. Thanks to you all. The Lord's people are the best. This is the first time we have made our goal since 2004. This will allow us to put our St. Augustine translator 101.5 on the air. We hope to get that done by the first of the year. You all are beautiful, special people. We love you all.

One thing that will not change is our commitment to proclaiming the gospel of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

God Bless you all,

Prayer Corner

October is Pastor Appreciation Month

Join us in praying for local pastors as they serve and sacrifice for the Kingdom. Pray for the unique challenges their families face, and for financial provision during these uncertain times.

Thorns, Snares & the Sword of the Spirit by Chris Johnson

Thorns and snares are in the way of the crooked; whoever guards his soul will keep far from them. Proverbs 22:5 ESV

How many there are who love to see how close they can get to the fire without being burned. They are content to be warmed by the fires of our sinful worldly system and find their heart's pleasures taking in as sweet morsels much of the domain of the prince of the power of the air. Conversely, they would testify to loving the Lord of Glory, yet their chosen daily paths are filled with thorns and snares as the wise Solomon warned. They have found the weeds of wickedness to be good company because they satisfy a rebellion lurking within their hearts. If indeed they are followers of our Lord Jesus Christ, they have found themselves in opposition to His will because they are lazily yielding to the fleshly temptation instead of taking the Sword of the Spirit in hand and guarding with all vigilance their souls and their hearts! The flower of the cactus might be pretty but the piercing of its thorns will surely be costly and might even leave a ghastly scar as a reminder of the foolish path we've taken. Surely no man can take coals unto himself and not be burned, and so too it is when we dabble in sin's red hot embers. Instead the wise man is humbly aware and on the lookout for the crooked path. When he spies it he immediately drops in pleading prayer for the Holy Spirit's protection and guidance. We must be on guard when temptation comes to fight with the Words of Christ that have been hidden in our hearts that we might not sin against God! God's wisdom is always available for his children who seek to know his will and his way! Indeed the Psalmist so wisely pointed us to the pure way in which God's people are called to strive. That safe and secure way indeed is filled with the Words of Life (Psalm 119:9).

Reflections by Donna Bramlett

I have in my hand a little broken shard of a mirror, only a few square inches. When I look in it, I see a small piece of me – one eye and part of my nose, or a section of my left cheek and part of my ear. But it really wasn't meant for that. That's not the reason it was given to me. What I'm supposed to do is take it out in the full sun and use it as a signal, a beacon that reflects the light and shows the way home for the lost and weary traveler. As I point this little piece of glass at just the right angle, it comes alive with the brilliance of the sun, and those in its beam, even across a deep valley or a fierce battlefield, can follow the light to a safe place.

That's what our little gifts are – pieces of a mirror. God only knows how they all fit together, but if they are aimed to reflect His glory and not ours, they serve the purpose of the Giver. As we cooperate with the Holy Spirit and polish away all the sinful habits that smudge and darken its surface, it will reflect the Son's brilliance just that much more.

What is your mirror? Is it pointing away from you, or do you sit staring at it, admiring the sheen? Probably a little of both, if you're like me. Imagine the brilliance and effectiveness when we all point our little gifts toward the One who gave them to us! How many wandering and weary saints will find their way home to their Father!

Programmer of the Month

We have a few programmers featured on WKWJ that you will not find on any other Cornerstone Station, and we want to introduce you to them. We are confident you will love them as much as we do!

While everyone can benefit from the various programs on The Cornerstone, we recognize the unique challenges women face in today's world. We have added a short encouragement burst on WJLU/WJLH by Nancy Leigh DeMoss called Seeking Him. It airs Monday through Friday at 4:45 pm. However, this amazing lady has much more to offer than can be condensed into a quick 60 seconds. We were excited to add her full-length program, Revive Our Hearts, to WKWJ. If you haven't already tuned in, here's why you should!

Why this program?

Women have been bombarded with conflicting and overwhelming messages about what it means to be a woman. Climb the corporate ladder. Lose weight. Take the kids to soccer practice and ballet and piano lessons and art classes. Grocery shop. Eat healthy. Dress sexy. Go to church. Dress modestly. Volunteer at the homeless shelter. Maintain hundreds of relationships on social networking sites. Keep the house spotless. Be a great wife. Buy more gadgets to make life easier. Love the kids. Have a daily quiet time. Get another degree. Oh, yeah, and enjoy life! Is it any wonder that women are stressed out, depressed, angry, guilty, fearful . . . numb?

When asked what the most urgent need among women is today, Nancy Leigh DeMoss says, "To know Christ—really know Him; to trust Him enough to obey Him; to love and enjoy Him . . . to 'own' the Gospel in its incredible, life-giving, transforming fullness and implications; to be willing to lay down our lives for the sake of Christ and the Gospel." (from www.reviveourhearts.com)

I'm sure you can see how Revive Our Hearts fits so perfectly with the rest of our Cornerstone programmers. Tune in on your radio, computer, Apple or Android device!

For those in the Key West area, tune into 91.9 FM. Outside that area, stream Revive Our Hearts on WKWJ.org. Or you can download the Cornerstone Broadcasting app on your Apple or Android device.
